The Goods under this contract/PI can only be used and installed within [Thailand], and shall not be resold or installed outside of [Thailand].

The Goods provided under this PI comply with the standards provided in the Goods' specification data sheet only. Any other technical standards, requirements and/or certification required either by the Goods destination government and/or other authorities shall be entirely at Buyer's own risk and costs. Seller shall in no event be held responsible for any breach or non-compliance under this clause.

Installation, Operation and Maintenance: Seller is not responsible for the installation, handling, operation and use and maintenance of the Goods, which are beyond Seller's control. Buyer shall be responsible for and ensure that: (i) the Goods are installed by professionals qualified for installing solar panels and that such professionals shall install the Goods in accordance with manufacturer's Installation Manual as well as in accordance with local laws and regulations; (ii) the Goods are handled, operated, used and maintained in accordance with manufacturer's Operation, Maintenance and Safety Manual and local laws and regulations; (iii) for Goods installed with private customers, such customers be alerted of the inherent risks of the Goods, be given manufacturer's Operation, Maintenance and Safety Manual and are provided with adequate instructions related to the safe operation and maintenance of the Goods as per such Manual; (iv) a register of customer complaints is kept for the and that the manufacturer is informed of any such monitoring; (v) any such operation complies with local laws and standards including local Goods safety laws and standards. To the extent that Buyer is not the end user of the Goods, Buyer shall: (i) keep record for 25 years of the serial numbers of the Goods sold to each of its own customers and of the name, address and contact details of each such customer; (ii) keep record for 25 years of customer complaints and report any such complaints to the manufacturer; (iii) ensure that Buyer's obligations as specified in this Clause are contractually imposed on Buyer's own customers and by them further down the commercial chain up to the final user so that the entire chain is committed to the above obligations and so that the Goods are properly installed, operated and maintained. To the extent that Buyer or Buyer's customer is the end user of the Goods, Buyer shall or shall cause its customer up to and including the final user to: (i) report any malfunctioning, failures or defects of the Goods to Seller/manufacturer; (ii) allow Seller or experts designated by Seller/manufacturer to visit Buyer or Buyer's customers plants, installation and operation and maintenance records. The Buyer confirms that it has carefully read over the user's manual and rules of applications for the Goods as provided by the Seller. Any failure by Buyer or Buyer's customers to meet their obligation as per this Clause or the Seller's user manual or rules of applications during handling (including without limitation to packing/unpacking, loading/unloading, transportation, storage, installation, use, operation or maintenance, etc.) of the Goods shall disqualify the Goods from Limited Manufacturer's Warranty, as well as any other potential Seller liability. The Buyer understands and agrees that the Seller will not be responsible for any damages of any kind, including but not limited to any product damages, personal injury or any other property losses, as resulting from any improper operations or faults by the Buyer or its customers during the handling of the Goods as failure to follow the instructions under the user manual and/or rules of applications as provided by the Seller.

The Buyer understands and agrees that at the time of filing any claims under the Limited Warranty provided by the Seller, the applicant shall be the owner of the warranty right for the Goods or has a valid authorization document issued by the owner of the warranty right for the Goods. It is the responsibility of the owner of the warranty right or its authorized representative to cooperate with Seller for signing the Warranty Solution Agreement. The notice of claim shall specify the claim along with written proof including, without limitation, for the purchase of the Goods (eg. purchasing invoices indicating purchase date, products, serial numbers, etc.) and for the defect or malfunction of the Goods (eg. materials related to transport, storage, installation and operation, etc.).

If Buyer fails to fulfill any of its payment obligations of any previous or current deal, Seller has the right to delay, suspend or cancel the shipment under this PI and any pending or future shipments, with all costs, damages and liabilities borne by Buyer solely.

Ownership of the Goods: Seller retains title in, and remains the owner of, the Goods until receiving payment in full ("Reserved Goods"). In the event of default in payment by Buyer, Seller may repossess the Reserved Goods after giving notice and Buyer shall be obliged to deliver the Goods, or, where applicable, Seller may enter Buyer's business and remove the Reserved Goods. Repossession shall not constitute rescission of this PI or any respective agreement.

Liquidated Damages: If Buyer fails to pay according to this PI, Buyer shall pay 0.5% of the due amount per day as liquidated damages. The prepayment shall be deemed as liquidated damages if any. If Buyer fails to pick up or accept the Goods according to this PI, without prejudice to any other rights of Seller, Buyer shall pay 5% of PI value of such Goods as liquidated damages.

If Seller fails to deliver the Goods on schedule for reasons solely attributable to Seller, Seller shall pay liquidated damages equal to 0.1% of the delayed goods price per week, up to the maximum cap of 5% in aggregate of the delayed goods price. Either Party may cancel the delayed shipment, with no further liability, when the liquidated damages reach the maximum cap. The liquidated damages provided herein are a genuine, fair and reasonable pre-estimate of the damages likely to be sustained by Buyer. Buyer expressly waives any rights of specific performance and agree that such liquidated damages shall be the sole and exclusive remedy of Buyer in relation to the late delivery and/or shipment cancellation. Seller shall have no other liability to Buyer in respect of any late delivery and/or shipment cancellation other than liability to pay the liquidated damages. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, the Seller shall be entitled to an extension of the scheduled delivery date if the supply of Goods is or will be delayed due to regulatory approval delay, including but not limited to Bureau of Indian Standards (BIS) certification delay.

If there is any conflict between this Clause and any other clauses, this Clause shall prevail.

Dispose of the Goods and Termination of Deal: Without prejudice to any other rights of Seller, Buyer's delay in payment, issuance of the L/C, pick-up or acceptance of the Goods of any shipment over [14] days will entitle Seller to dispose of the Goods and cancellation of the shipment, with all costs, damages and liabilities borne by Buyer solely, and Buyer shall pay to Seller liquidated damages equal to [20]% of the goods value of the shipment canceled under this clause.

16/06/2023

Liability and Warranty: Neither party shall be liable to the other party for loss of profits or for any indirect, incidental, consequential, special or exemplary damages arising here from. Seller's aggregate liability, if any, in damages, indemnification or otherwise, shall not exceed the goods price paid by Buyer allocable to the specific equipment upon which the claim is directly based. The remedies provided under the Limited Warranty set out Buyer's sole and exclusive remedies from Seller for any breach of the Limited Warranty by Seller. Except as provided in the Limited Warranty, Seller makes no representation or warranty of any kind, whether express or implied, including with respect to any warranty as to merchantability, fitness for use or for any particular purpose.

The payment of tariff or duty and any other cost or charges applicable in connection with export and import of the Goods shall be borne in accordance with the Incoterms 2020 trade term specified in the chart of Description of Goods.

Despite above, in the event any duties, tariffs, deposits (no matter provisional or final) are imposed by the Goods destination government with respect to the PV solar modules and/or cells as a result of trade investigation (including but not limited to anti-countervailing and/or anti-dumping investigations, safeguard investigation) or any other reasons, it is agreed by the Parties that the risks and such duties, tariffs or deposits shall be totally borne by Buyer. If there is any conflict between this Clause and any other clauses, this Clause shall prevail.

The actual shipping quantity indicated in this PI shall be subject to the approval made by the credit insurer designated by Seller. Seller is entitled to refuse any shipment if by the time of such shipment under this PI: (a) the China Export and Credit Insurance Company (or other credit insurance company used by Seller) refuses to issue credit insurance for the default risk of Buyer, or (b) Buyer's credit as granted by China Export and Credit Insurance Company or other credit insurance company is insufficient to cover the value of Goods, or (c) a material change in Buyer's credit quality has occurred (e.g. credit downgrade, insolvency event or payment default under this PI or other agreement).

Any conflict/s between this PI and original contract/PO, this PI shall prevail.

Buyer warrants that it shall not, directly or indirectly, be involved or act in a manner contrary to applicable laws including but not limited to the U. S. FCPA, any sanctions or trade compliance imposed by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission and the European Union, or be involved in any transactions with any party identified under the Consolidated Screening List (CSL) https://www.export.gov/csl-search. Buyer shall take full responsibility including keeping Supplier indemnified, and immediately notify the Supplier if any breach, whether directly or indirectly, of the above comes to its knowledge. A violation of any of the obligations contained in this clause may be considered to be a material breach of this Agreement applies, and shall entitle the Supplier to terminate such contractual relationship with immediate effect and without prejudice to any further right or remedies under this contractual relationship or applicable law.

Governing Law and Dispute Settlement: This PI shall be governed by the laws of People's Republic of China (with exclusion of its conflicts of law rules and the United Nations Convention on the International Sale of Goods (CISG)), except that the above clause of Ownership of Goods shall be governed by the laws of the country of Buyer's premises to which the Reserved Goods are shipped, but to the exclusion (to the extent permitted under such law) of its conflicts of law rules). Any dispute arising out of or in connection with this PI shall be submitted to China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission, in accordance with the Rules of Arbitration promulgated by the said Arbitration Commission. Notwithstanding the foregoing, either party has the right to apply to any court of competent jurisdiction for preliminary injunctive relief and/or provisional attachments, pre-arbitral attachments, order of specific performance, as may appear reasonably necessary to preserve the rights of either party. The application by either party to a judicial authority for such measures shall not be deemed to be an infringement or a waiver of the arbitration clause and shall not affect the relevant powers reserved to the arbitration tribunal.
